

Intended Recipient of Funds: YMCA of Long Island, Inc.
155 Buckley Road
Holtsville, NY 11742

Amount Requested: $100,000

Explanation of the Request: In light of recent, racially-motivated attacks on Long Island, the Brookhaven-Roe YMCA is launching a Diversity Training Program that will include training and development workshops, the addition of bilingual staff, part-time counselors, and guest speakers to help businesses, employees and others in the community better understand the importance of diversity and respect. This program is not only important the general community, but of growing importance to area businesses that are experiencing increased diversity in the workforce. The YMCA recognizes the need to create a safe, inclusive workplace environment, as well as expand these goals to the community.
